Greetings Ne-Kee-Wa Brothers and Sisters:

This is the first edition of the Chapter's newsletter called The Wulaptonachgat which translates "fine word, good news". We will use the newsletter to provide you with current information and articles to read about the Order of the Arrow. We hope that you enjoy the material and get involve with your Chapter.

Hello All!

Our next chapter meeting will be held at Stevi B's on Cove Road in Stuart at 630pm on October 13th. Dress in Class A uniform. The cost will be $6.59 for pizza and $2 for a drink. Hope to see you all for a social meeting.

Section Seminars will be held on the weekend of November 11-13th at Camp Shands in Hawthorne, Florida, hosted by Echockotee Lodge. This weekend will include many seminars on a variety of topics relating to Order of the Arrow, ranging from ceremonies and dancing, to creating a great chapter and a quality lodge. In addition, there will be a patch auction on Saturday night, with patches from all over the section. The cost of the event for the Aal-pa-tah contingent will be $40, which includes transportation and the weekend itself (meals, the weekend patch, etc.). If you would like to participate in the patch auction or purchase an item from the trading post, be sure to bring extra money. More information on transportation, the seminars, the weekend schedule, and steps for registering for this event is available on the flyer at the following link. <http://www.aal-pa-tah237.org/assets/files/section%20seminars.pdf>

Project 2013 Begins Largest Corps Recruitment in OA History

Join Project 2013 to serve on staff at the 2013 National Scout Jamboree with the Order of the Arrow. Project 2013 is recruiting 700 Arrowmen who are excited and dedicated to cheerful service to join the OA Service Corps, the Jamboree Trek Guides, and the Day of Service Guides. This corps will be the largest in the Order's history. To learn more about Project 2013 and the 2013 National Scout Jamboree opportunities visit the Order of the Arrow website.

Attention OA Troop Reps:

We need your help to spread the mission of the Order. Please support the Chapter by attending the meetings and events.
