Section C

Fellow Arrowmen,

There are 8 Lodges in our Section in North Florida, and all 8 of these Lodges will be hosting the Section Conference in 2011 when Aal-Pa-Tah hosts!

I am the Chairman for this Conference and I have been working hard to put together a program for our Conference. Our Lodge has hosted conferences, All-Around. With activities ranging from human Tic-Tac-Toe, our past proves that when it comes to hosting events, we can heighten that bar of achievement. This year we want our members to enjoy the members of the Section a great time and to achieve their goals but our personal goals are to host the most successful.

Brothers, a huge milestone in our history. The patch from this conference will hang in the back of your lodge as a legacy which we leave will hang about you. I urge each of you to volunteer yourself to host the Section Conference 2011 the Best Conference. I am the Section S-4 Lodge Chief or myself for any information. This WILL be the BEST SECTION CONFERENCE!

To our newest Arrowmen,

I am Elliot Taft, the Lodge Chief of Aal-Pa-Tah Lodge #237. I would like to again congratulate you on completing your Ordeal but more importantly congratulate you on the years of hard work and dedication it took to get to this point. You have excelled to be the leaders and examples in your Troops. This was not an easy task and you should be proud of yourselves.

Now that you are officially part of the Order, what comes next? There are many ways you can become further involved in our Lodge, these include the different committees, Ceremonies, Native American dancing and many more. In this book you'll find a list of the chairmen for each committee, I encourage you to reach out to one of them and become involved. In these different committees you will encounter some work, but the fun you'll have working and playing alongside your

Lodge Banquet

In January, we hold our annual Aal-Pa-Tah Lodge Banquet. Banquet is where we gather for pure fellowship, and recognizing some of our brothers from the previous and current years. Please come on out and enjoy being a part of the Lodge.
