

Leadership

Class Name	y/a	Description
Your role on the LEC	y/a	Learn about the various positions and responsibilities associated with the Lodge Executive Committee, what job is right for you, how do you get involved, what responsibilities does your job include, how can you best serve the lodge?
OA Scoutreach Mentoring	y/a	Learn the purpose and reasoning behind the OA ScoutReach Mentoring program Understand the reasoning why the OA has such an important role in helping the ScoutReach program to succeed Learn how the program works and functions Realize there are recognitions available for those who become ScoutReach Mentors
NOAC, OAHA, and National Activities	y/a	Discuss various promotional techniques, travel ideas, and side trips with members of other Lodges in this open forum style session. This session also includes an AC5 recap and some great promotional ideas for NOAC 2009
Creative Lodge Activities Forum	y/a	Tired of the same old games every year, meet and share ideas with other Lodge leaders in this open forum to find ways of adding more interesting activities to your lodge and chapter events that are sure to captivate your members and keep them coming back.
Designing a Quality Website	y/a	Learn about different techniques and ideas used by Lodges when designing a website that will serve your members needs, keep people interested in the website,
Leave no Trace Camping	y/a	Learn different methods of reducing your ecological footprint. Members can share ideas of how to keep scouts interested in protecting the outdoors, and preserving our camps and parks
Patch Trading 101	y/a	Designed for patch trading beginners this session gives new members an introduction to patch trading including the different types of patches, customs and traditions of patch trading, and patch trading safely.
How to run a Chapter Effectively	y/a	Understand the job descriptions of chapter officers ' Chief, Vice Chief, Secretary, and Adviser and how they apply to Chapter Meetings. Understand the roles of a Chapter Chief and the Adviser at these meetings Appropriate components of Chapter meetings Agenda creation and items to include for a Chapter meeting. Purpose(s) of Chapter meetings Roundtable discussion for questions and answers Understand the fundamentals of chapter management.
Being an Advisor, what works?	a	An open forum type session to help advisors understand their role in the Lodge or Chapter, also to share successful strategies and ideas that could help other Lodges improve the experience of their members
The Elangomat Program	y/a	Learn to successfully implement the Elangomat program in your Lodge. Where to start, how to ensure a meaningful induction, following through on the program to receive maximum benefits for the new members and for the Lodge.
Nimats	y/a	The next step after the Ordeal. Keeping your new members involved. Learn ways to carry out the Nimat Program which will help your Lodge retain new members during their first year and encourage them to seal their ties of Brotherhood
Retaining New Members	y/a	Discuss techniques used by other Lodges to keep members coming back after their Ordeal
Robert and his Rules of Order	y/a	Learn the proper way to run a meeting using Parliamentary Procedure
Building a successful team	y/a	What should you consider when selecting people to work with on projects, we will share ideas to help choose the right person for the job and make your team as effective as possible
Conducting Unit Elections	y/a	Recognize why unit elections are important in the OA and how the quality of presentation can improve the unit leader's perception of the OA Fully understand the youth and adult membership requirements and unit elections procedures Learn the unit election and adult nomination procedures Learn how to work with a unit election team to properly conduct a unit election
Youth and Adults working together	y/a	To understand the skills necessary to develop a good working relationship between youth and adults Understanding the roles within the youth/adviser relationship Learn what youth and advisors should expect from each other Examine different youth/adviser relationships

Working with Cub Scouts	y/a	Acquaint lodge leaders with the Cub Scout program, especially camping and advancement Provide lodge leaders with venues they can use to become involved in the Cub Scout program Provide lodge leaders with resources needed to promote Cub Scout camping Provide lodge leaders with resources to conduct Webelos Crossover and Arrow of Light ceremonies Using Leadership Skills to implement these goals
Producing a quality newsletter	y/a	Brainstorm different techniques to make your Lodge publications stand out, share ideas of how to include more people in your newsletter and produce a more effective publication

Ceremonies

Class Name	y/a	Description
Improving the Ceremonial Experience	y/a	Learn how to make the ceremonial experience a lasting memory for members going through the ceremony. Learn certain tips and tricks helpful in creating a top notch ceremonial experience when competing and when performing for the members of your Lodge
Ceremonial Regalia: Looking the Part	y/a	See different items used by ceremonialists playing different roles in the various ceremonies. Learn about the items used by each principle and their significance in the ceremony
PreOrdeal in depth	y/a	Get an in depth look at each ceremony including the background and history of the ceremony, how to properly execute the ceremony, how to make a lasting impression, and how to prepare beforehand. Please only attend classes for ceremonies that you have been through.
The Ordeal Ceremony	y/a
Sealing the Ties: Brotherhood	y/a
the final step: Vigil ceremony	y/a
Recruiting Ceremonialists	y/a	How to get members involved in ceremonies and make your ceremonies team stand out, also share ways of getting new ceremonialists started immediately and how to keep older members involved.

American Indian Activities

Class Name	y/a	Description
AIA introduction	y/a	What is AIA. You can learn different ways to get involved in American Indian Activities such as dancing, singing, and making regalia.
Dancing
Grass Dancing	y/a	Learn the customs and traditions associated with different styles of dancing, including the history and background of each style
Straight Dancing	y/a
Traditional Dancing	y/a
Fancy Dancing	y/a
Singing
Southern singing	y/a	Learn about the types of songs used with each style of dance and experience different traditions that take place during powwows.
Northern singing	y/a drum group for dance classes	y/a
Clothing
Fancy Dance clothes	y/a	Learn about the types of clothes used for dancing, the background of items, and the reason behind different items used by dancers, learn to distinguish different styles of dance based on the type of clothes that the dancer is wearing.
Old Style clothes	y/a
Straight Dance clothes	y/a
Traditional clothes	y/a
Seminole clothes	y/a
Crafts and Accessories
Leather tanning	y/a	Learn how to make various items and crafts used by dancers. Build your own crafts to take home with you.
Fan building	y/a
Bustles	y/a
Mirror boards	y/a
Drum stick making	y/a
Lazy stitch	y/a
Patchwork	y/a
Round stitch	y/a
Roaches	y/a	